CESAR BENZONI trio

BIO ✨ ✨ ✨

The Cesar Benzoni Trio brings the sound of 1940s jazz to life with a lineup of guitar, vocals, piano, and double bass. Inspired by drumless trios like the King Cole Trio and Oscar Peterson Trio, they perform a mix of swing-era jazz standards and Italian jazz songs arranged for this format.

Led by Brazilian-Italian guitarist and singer Cesar Benzoni, the trio focuses on authenticity in both sound and presentation. Using period-appropriate equipment, they recreate the feel of a classic jazz performance, with a repertoire featuring music by Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Fats Waller, Benny Goodman, Renato Carosone, and Nicola Arigliano.

The group currently holds a residency at Il Vicolo in Galway, an award-winning Italian restaurant known for its Jazz Sundays. They have also performed at Silent Cinema Galway, an award-winning venue dedicated to early film and live music.

The Cesar Benzoni Trio plays jazz that invites people to listen, dance, and dream.
